Biography

Tellurico is a multidisciplinary design studio specialised in objects and installations founded by Francesco Pace, in 2017.

The investigation of alternative solutions through the study of folklore and the connection between crafts and environment are keys elements of Tellurico's practice. The field of investigation is always expanding, as endless are the possible results.

Its work has been presented in international venues such as Biennale of Architecture in Venice, MADRE of Naples, Triennale di Milano, Brohan Museum Berlin.

Tellurico is currently based in the Netherlands
